Principles Of Happy Money

Hello,

With the polar vortex, snowstorms, and tax season hitting us all at once, you're probably looking for some extra happiness. If a tropical vacation isn't in your calendar, why not explore how your money can make you happy—and not just by having more of it.

Are you getting the optimal happiness from your portfolio? You may be surprised by how many little things can create happiness when you spend and invest money wisely. The good news is that there are lots of steps you can take to get happiness from your money. From consulting with experienced friends and family and working with me to understand the forces behind successful investing, along with some self-experimentation; you can figure out how to put your portfolio to work toward happiness and financial security.

Just as each day brings us closer to spring, every little step we take to take control of our money by understanding ourselves and our living plan, can bring more and more happiness to life.

Please feel free to share these articles with your family and friends, they are excellent conversation starters.
